We have been using TSG-Radplan radiotherapy treatment planning system supplied by M/S.TSG Integrations, Delhi since 1991. The system has met our requirements of radiotherapy planning satisfactorily. We have performed quality test from time to time and found the system to meet the standards set for such tests internationally. The system has proved to be efficient, very reliable and user friendly. The service support from the company has been good.

Being satisfied with this 2D model of the system, we have now purchased ASHA 3D Treatment Planning System from TSG-Integrations. The System is currently under installation. We will also be using the virtual Simulation feature of the 3D system, System for accurate patient set up for dose delivery.
